Special point of interest:

Find KLRF on the web at www.klrf.org. Google KLRF carefully. Another Christian station in Pullman, WA, has the same call letters in a different order.

We Must Love Them While We Can You Can Help Propel Children's Programming Worldwide

The music begins as a cheerful radio voice proclaims, "Hey kids, it's time for Uncle Dan and Aunt Carol!" "Hurry, Grace!" call Evan and Owen, "Your Story Hour is starting." Grace drops her toys and sprints to the radio. The three children jostle for position, then settle in so they can listen.

They are able to listen because your generosity makes Christian programming possible.

Evan, Grace and Owen say a boisterous "Thank you." Their parents are grateful for your help in forming the characters of their children.

We are striving to make stories available to all children on the new KLRF website you requested we develop.

But we need your help. Your gifts will open the love of Jesus to children all over the world as they log on to live streaming. We don't have our children for long. We must love them while we can.

Owen, Grace and Evan listen to Your Story Hour every day. Your generosity will make it possible to stream their favorite program, bringing joy to millions of children everywhere.

Milton-Stateline 8th Graders Embrace KLRF

Developing donor-requested web page

Leslie Briggs, principal of Milton-Stateline Adventist School and her Media class are responding to your request for an online presence for KLRF.

They are honing their "techy" skills by designing a KLRF website. We give them a huge thumbs up for their work!

The website is now under construction. Watch for more information in further newsletters.

We take your requests seriously. You know better than anyone what is best. Thanks for speaking up!

New Manager Recounts Gift of Miracle Birth

Your gifts continue to keep KLRN growing after 19 years on the air

Pastor Owen Bandy, General Manager, KLRN 88.5

In 1997 a small group of people met in a home in College Place. There we were offered the gift of starting a radio station as members of the Life Talk Radio network.

Interestingly, another entity in town was offering to pay $300,000 for the license.

After prayer and recognizing God's leading hand of providence we accepted the Lord's call and began this faith adventure.

Though I left the area for a few years, now I'm back. My heart is full as I relive that labor and delivery experience when this station took its first tiny breath. You then responded to God's call and continue to help it grow.

Thank you, thank you for the last nineteen years of tender care you have given KLRN. And thank you, too, for allowing me to join you once again in this amazing ministry. To God be the glory.

Featured Recipe

Roasted Asparagus

1 bunch asparagus

3-5 cloves garlic, crushed

1-2 Tbs olive oil

Salt to taste

1 1/2 tsp fresh lemon juice

Trim off the tough edges. Cut asparagus into 1 inch sections (optional). Mix all ingredients together in a bowl.

Spread on cookie sheet. Bake at 425 degrees on top rack of oven 15-20 minutes until slightly brown. Stir 2-3 times while baking.

Pour lemon juice over asparagus after it's baked.

Peru (41%) is the world's leading asparagus exporter, followed by Mexico (23%) and the United States (10%). In the United States, the majority of asparagus is grown in just 3 states: California, Washington, and Michigan. . . . It generally takes 3 years from the initial crown planting before a grower can harvest the crop and be able to earn any revenue.

Only you can make it happen. Your continued faithful and heroic support could change someone's world for eternity.

Joy Overflows Through Service

Inspirational thoughts by General Manager Owen Bandy

This spring I was stunned by a long row of tall, brightly blooming yellow daffodils in my new yard.

It reminded me of the words in Psalm 85:11 "Truth shall spring out of the earth." What a great image of the words of life leaping forth from the earth bringing joy and life to those who suddenly find them.

This is a good time of year to ask ourselves, "What is the Holy Spirit trying to bring to birth in my life? What beautiful thing is it that our Heavenly Father is trying to bring out in me? What fruit has He called me to bear?"

What blessing is He asking me to produce for those around me?"

Serving others is our purpose for living. Isaiah 58:10 & 11 says, "If you extend your soul to the hungry and satisfy the afflicted soul . . . You shall be like a watered garden."

There is no better time than now, so . . . Start today.

We appreciate the beautiful music. Thank you for continuing to play 'traditional' music. . . . I'm only 58 years old, but I still like the traditional the best. Thank you.—Sue

I sent a donation to 'Between the Lines' by Don Pate—but it was returned with a note that it's no longer functioning, yet the request for support is still on their (very enjoyable) program. What gives?"—JoAnne
