“Rejection Notice,” it said at the top of the official looking notice. The return address of “Department of Corrections, Washington State,” stood out conspicuously on the envelope.

Yes, the prison authorities rejected the newsletter from KRLRF. Why? It contained a return envelope.

And why was a newsletter going to the penitentiary? A few months before, an inmate who listens regularly used his own envelope to send a loving donation to KRLRF. His generosity helped continue sending the radio ministry across boundaries that people and mail cannot cross.

We will still send his newsletter, but without an envelope, so he can continue to be blessed through the written and spoken words and music of KLRF.

You share in prison ministry by supporting KLRF. Your gifts will ensure that inmates are able to continue listening without interruption.

Walla Walla Penitentiary prisoners are allowed to listen to KLRF. Your gifts guarantee this life-changing message will continue to be available to all wherever they may be.

Blank Space: Stories Needed for Praising God

Yes, it's true. We need your help to fill our newsletter with the many wonderful stories of KLRF.

We want to know about lives changed, touched by God through the beautiful music, inspiring words and instructive educational broadcasts.

Give me a call—I'd love to hear your stories and share them as praise to our dear Lord.

Amazing Gifts Spread Blessings

You are Responding to God's Prompting through Giving and Volunteering

Pastor Owen Bandy, General Manager, KLRF 88.5

Wow, what a response! You all are amazing.

Let me explain. One listener told me he is so committed to helping the station get live streaming, that he will give a substantial donation to make it happen.

Another listener actually traveled with me to the top of the mountain where our antennae resides. He wanted to learn all he could about KLRF so he can be helpful in the ministry.

Many of you send in regular donations to support the ongoing expenses of KLRF. As you read this newsletter, you will see that you are saving lives for eternity.

You also provide a crucial lifeline for many who cannot get around or who are caretakers.

These examples illustrate Jesus shining through you. Thank you and may God bless you as you bless others.

Featured Recipe

Hawaiian Vege-Haystacks

Ingredients:

4-6 cups rice, cooked
1 can Worthington Fri-Chik, diced, fried
Sweet and sour sauce
Soy sauce or Bragg's Liquid Aminos

Toppings:

Tomatoes
Olives
Chow Mein Noodles
Pineapple
Cheese (optional)
Green, yellow and/or red Peppers
Coconut, flaked
Peanuts or slivered Almonds
Celery
Green onion
Peas

This versatile recipe is quick and easy; a favorite for healthy, light, summer cuisine.

The protein may be any kind of meat, meat substitute, tofu or legume. Use brown rice for a healthier meal.

You may use any or all of the suggested toppings, or whatever you happen to have in your pantry that you would like to add.

Your Inside Scoop—Antennae Failing

The Corner Where Savvy Donors Stay in the KLRF Loop

You've often seen thin antenna towers extending far into the sky, reaching for the clouds. They have wires extending back down to the ground, holding the tower in place, safe from buffeting winds.

An antennae, attached to the tower makes a radio station burst to life. A station can have the finest programming and the most blessed message, but without an antennae you cannot hear it.

Many years ago an antennae was donated to KLRF. Now, located high on a mountaintop, it brings life and hope to thousands.

Now the antennae and coax cable are failing. Installing and replacing this equipment will cost several thousand dollars. We are still getting the costs finalized.

Your help will surmount this obstacle so God's message can continue to be broadcast to children, their parents, grandparents, aunts and uncles. Thank you for making this ministry come alive.

Share Freedom Behind Bars

Inspirational thoughts by General Manager Owen Bandy

As we come to the end of the summer, what burst into life a few months ago is now producing wonderful fruits, vegetables, grains and other life-giving sustenance.

Through the season sun, rain, and wind have assaulted the growing plants. Sometimes it has been gentle, but other times the wind has been harsh, the sun burned and the rain become stinging hail. Even so, the plants now yield life-giving crops.

Sometimes our lives can feel bombarded. We struggle; others struggle. We feel trapped, caught in a web of circumstances. Imprisoned by life, we long for freedom.

The freedom we seek is available through Jesus. When we've tasted that freedom, we become like the fruits of the field, sharing the life-giving love of the boundless freedom of Christ.

Jesus asks us to share that freedom and help set prisoners free—not always from their physical prison, but certainly from their imprisonment by sin, ignorance, rebellion and foolish choices.

Christ left these words of instruction: "I was in prison and you came to visit me ... I tell you the truth, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did for me."

Matthew 25:36, 40

We can partner with Jesus by sharing His freedom behind bars no matter what the weather.
