Jesus Christ is Revealed Through Your Gifts

KLRF is confirmed as part of a Larger Ministry

They came from far and wide to Tucson, Arizona. Radio managers, producers, computer technicians, pastors, people with degrees, people with no degrees, men and women who all had the same dream.

They dreamed of sharing the good news of Jesus Christ via gospel radio.

Most of the people were employees or volunteers of fully operating radio stations. This was a special gathering specifically for Seventh-day Adventist Christian radio stations in North America. Representation ranged from the Alaskan frontier to Micronesia.

Included among the guests were the station manager for KLRF, Pastor Owen Bandy and the technical manager, Ted Duncan.

The guests were instructed in a host of subjects including the ethical and legal challenges of running an *FCC licensed radio station. Owen and Ted gleaned some excellent information on how to ensure KLRF is FCC compliant.

There were also discussions regarding what to consider when going online with your station. As you know, live streaming is one of our dreams.

Owen commented, “It was fascinating to hear the different ways others use to engage their stations with their communities. Also, the number of lay volunteers running radio stations was inspiring.”

You, our donors and listeners to KLRF are our lay volunteers. You make it possible to proclaim a message to many who may never hear it otherwise.

Thank you for the faithful support you give to KLRF, ensuring continuous broadcasting to hungry hearts.

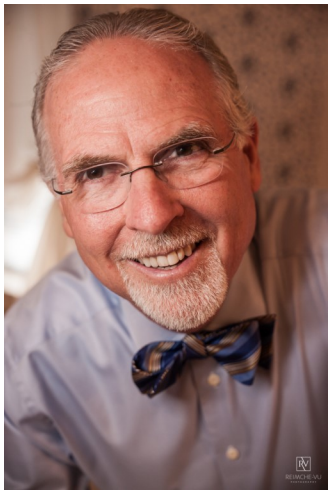
Volunteers, the Heart of Radio Ministry

KLRF Needs Your Help to Share the Message



Pastor Owen Bandy, General Manager, KLRF 88.5

How I wish you could have been with me at the Adventist Radio Convention. You would have been so inspired to meet the volunteer lay people from all over North America. They were so enthusiastic about getting even low power stations up and running. Their dreams of broadcasting the Bible message spurred them on. You would have indeed been blessed to hear the stories of lives changed because of Christian radio.

Lay volunteers are the life blood of every radio ministry. We are always looking for people of the vision. We know that the Lord is preparing hearts to expand this exciting ministry. We need help answering phones, increasing office hours, with technical expertise, picking up newsletters from the printer, managing our address list, etc. Do you feel the Lord nudging you? If so, contact us at 509-524-0885. You would make our day!

Melted "Cheezy" Sauce

Need something cholesterol-free for festive occasions? Try this tasty alternative for cheese sauce over crispy corn chips, as nacho sauce, or as a sauce for vegetables or baked potatoes.

Makes 2/1/2 cups (ten 1/4-cup servings)

2 cups hot water
1/4 cup raw cashews, rinsed
1 4 oz. jar pimientos
3 tablespoons nutritional yeast
2 tablespoons cornstarch or arrowroot powder
1 tablespoon fresh lemon juice
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1/2 teaspoon onion flakes or powder
1/4 teaspoon garlic powder
1/2 teaspoon cumin (optional)
chili powder to taste (optional)
1 can diced green chilies (optional)

Process cashews and hot water in a blender until velvety smooth. Add remaining ingredients and continue beating until very smooth. Pour into sauce pan and heat over medium-low heat, stirring constantly, until thickened. Serve warm with a clear conscience! (From Complete Health Improvement Program, Paradise, California)

The Corner Where Savvy Donors Stay in the KLRF Loop

Online broadcasting is coming! Did you know that every time we play a song online, we have to pay a royalty fee? As you may know, we already pay royalty fees to a music licensing company annually. When we go online, it's as if we have started a second radio station, one over the air and one online, which will add about $300 a month to our current operating costs. We hope to begin online broadcasting in May. Your donations will help send the message of Jesus Christ through KLRF around the world.

Thank you ever so much for your donations for the antenna fix, which is imperative to keep KLRF broadcasting. We now have the equipment and are waiting for good weather to get it in. We had to raid our operating funds for the equipment, so don't quit sending your support to pay for it. The Lord will bless you as we all work together to make it happen. Blessings to you!!!

Scarlet Turns White as Snow

Inspirational thoughts by General Manager Owen Bandy

Craaack!! It sounded to me like every vertebrae was instantly readjusted. Stunned, I lay in my driveway trying to catch my breath. The black ice was totally unexpected. It could have been much worse; I was fortunate to suffer only two fractured ribs.

Some of you have had this frightening experience. This has been a particularly cold and icy winter, making it treacherous to be outdoors.

As I rest, limited by my injuries, I look outside at the glistening snow and am reminded of a precious promise in the Bible.

Jesus tells us, "Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be white as snow." Scarlet is God's favorite color when presented to Him for the covering blood of Jesus. When we claim the saving blood of Jesus we can face our spiritual winters and not be afraid.

The wise King Solomon once said, "She is not afraid of the snow for her household, for all her household are clothed with scarlet" Prov. 31:21.

The scarlet blood of Christ covers our sins, making us sparkling snowy white.

White is the third most referenced color in the Old Testament. It is often used to mean righteous or pure. It can also mean wisdom or holiness. We become pure, or holy when our sins are covered.

I pray that we all will be clothed in the scarlet blood of Jesus and appear white as snow before our heavenly Father.

Your Time

Your comments and suggestions are indispensable —keep 'em coming!

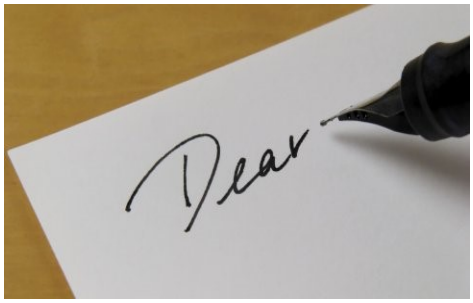
"Hi! You're getting better all the time! I love your station!" —Dorothy

"I wake up every morning with my radio tuned to the sounds of KLRF, and it is about time I thanked all of you who make that possible. It truly starts my day off right!"—Lou

"I like both the programs and the music. ☺"—Julia

"I read a comment from someone who only wants to hear music. I strongly disagree. I think what you are doing is fine—please do not change it. Many people benefit from the sermons you play as well as the Life Talk counseling programs."—Julie

"This station's music and other programming, including 'Night Sounds,' has helped me through months of chemotherapy, back problems and additional health difficulties. I really appreciate this station! At night I even enjoy hearing Dr. Loren Dickinson, my teacher at Walla Walla University many years ago. Thank you so much!"—Grace



Claim your time! It's easy; just use the enclosed envelope to send us a note or email us at manager@klrf.org—we'd love to hear from you.

"I appreciate your station so much, especially the heavenly music and the songs with harmony."—Lin

Manager: Thank you so much for your amazing support of the KLRF Ministry. Thousands of lives are touched daily through your generous gifts. We value your opinions—keep 'em coming!
